Summer Art Show Opens July 15

Old Shiloh Meeting House painted by Ralph Steele, 2003, Acrylic

Did you know that the Dubois County Museum has in their collection numerous original and poignant works of art? Beginning on July 15th, you are invited to view a showing of these works of art from our collections, as well as, several pieces added by members of the community. The Exhibits crew will be gathering the art from hallways, shelves, and storage into a special display of exceptional art. Opening of the Art Show will be Thursday, July 15, as part of our Third Thursday Free Night Series. The museum will be open that evening from 5:30-8:00 p.m. for visitors to browse the show. The Art Show will then continue till the end of August for all to view during the museum's regular hours.

A special tribute to the late Tom Schum is also being planned for Thursday evening, July 15th.

Children's Area Reopens July 1

The Dubois County Museum is pleased to announce that our Children's Little Pioneer Area will reopen to the public on Thursday, July 1. The Lewis and Clark boat, Grandma's Attic Dress-up area, Reading Nook, Schoolhouse and all play areas will again be available for public use.

Learn to Tie a Fly Fishing Fly

Don't pass up this chance to learn a new skill. Joe "Swampy" Schoenbacher and friends will be at the museum all day on this Saturday, June 26, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. to give personal attention to those who wish to learn this skill. Come any time during the day and stay as long as you wish. Several flies will be taught.

Visit the Museum Booth at the Dubois County 4-H Fair July 12-16

The Dubois County 4-H Council has invited several non profits to maintain a booth at the Dubois County 4-H Fair this year. Our booth/table will be set up in the Commercial Building. We invite everyone to come visit us, gather brochures and items about our museum, take home a special refrigerator magnet, and try for chances to win free passes and memberships. A nightly drawing will be held for a free yearly membership (value $25). This may be applied to the price of other levels of membership. We are also hoping to bring our new touch screen display to the fair showing our videos and Murals. We also hope to feature a few of our QR codes that can be scanned with your mobile device to view one of our recorded videos.

The booth is open from 6-9:00pm. Workers are:

Monday Kathy Bach-

man, Mike Vogler, Vicki Wiederkehr, Terry Flick, Arnie Mehringer

Tuesday-Mary Ellen Backer, Marcia Werne, Vicki Wiederkehr, Kathy Bachman

Wednesday-Jeff Schmitt, Brenda Eckert, Kent Reyling, Kathy Bachman

Thursday-Carrie Holdsworth, Marcia Werne, Kathy Bachman, One more needed

Friday- Stacy Buhr, Swampy, Kathy Bachman, One more Needed

Workers please come at 5:30pm.

Room Rental Available

The Museum continues to offer room rental to those families, businesses, civic groups, etc., that are coordinating a gathering. The large log house area is available for $125 and will fit up to 200 people. The front porch of the log home may be used as a stage. It is not air conditioned, but has large fans and added insulation in the roof to make the room pleasant. Room Three is available for up to 50 for dinner and 70 people for assembly and rents for $75. It is air conditioned. Tables and chairs for both rooms can be set up to your preference. Rental contract forms are available.

If you plan to have alcohol; you must submit a rental contract and obtain a licensed caterer. Rental must be approved by Board.

Contact Shirley Ray at 812-634-7733 to reserve your date.

Book a family get-together at the museum.

In Memory of Wayne Lytle

The Museum community of Volunteers was saddened to learn of the passing of Wayne Lytle on June 6, 2021. Wayne was very involved in helping in the Train Room and would come to the museum at a moments notice to fix any problems we had with the trains. He especially loved to see the excited faces of the visitors as they watched the trains run. Rest in peace, Wayne.

Museum Booth at Strassenfest

Volunteers Needed! The Museum will have a Pop Up tent booth at the 2021 Strassenfest. It will be located in the grassy area around the square. Our Director Shirley Ray and her committee are working on what the museum will showcase and sell at the fest. This is an excellent way to present our museum to the many that attend the fest. If you would like to volunteer to help a few hours in the booth, please contact Shirley at the museum 812-634-7733.
