March 2024

A busy month is planned at the museum in March. Come in and check out all the activities planned.

Kelli Hecker, at Work N Style Salon from Louisville, KY, will be on hand to talk further to those thinking of pursuing a career in cosmetology.

Beauty and Barber Shop Exhibit Opening-March 1

The museum Exhibit Team has had some fun in gathering pieces for the new temporary exhibit to open on March 1. The Beauty and Barber Shop Exhibit will run from March 1 to October 1, 2024. Local Beauty Shop and Barber Shop finds have been brought out of our collections and displayed in Room 1. A number of items came from the Pfeffer family and Aurelia's Beauty Shop.. The manicure table, as well as a 1940's Fredericks Permanent Wave Machine will sure to create a conversation item.. Thanks to local barber Mike Cravener and collector Kenny Lechner for their items on barber shops. Pieces of items from Summer's Barber Shop, Maxwell's Shop, and museum collection items round out the exhibit.

Also check out the Barber Shop display in our Main Street area.

Special Program March 10, 1:30 p.m.

The museum's programming committee has asked several beauty shop operators/acosmetologist and barbers to speak about their craft on Sunday, March 10, beginning at 1:30 p.m. They will share any special stories or experiences they have had over the years with working with the public. On hand will be Irene Kapp, Bonnie Gehlhausen Matheis, Sandy Hoing, Kelli Hacker, Brenda Buehler, Greg Kendall, Gene Mehringer, Gary Frank, Mike Cravener and Bill Uebelhor. Also Kelli Hecker, a Cosmetologist from Louisville, KY will share how she started with her company Work N Style and grew her business. Kelli will give out several gifts. Brenda Buehler will share how she created and operates New Look, Ltd., a hair replacements and wig business in Jasper. Food and refreshments
